ELAINE CENCEL

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the Mountains of God
Over the fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod
Beacon of hope in thy ways dreary lighted,
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us,
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you. — Brodie Payne

Benediction

ROY KUMPE

Roy Kumpe is a humanitarian whose dynamic leadership has greatly improved the opportunities and conditions of life for the blind citizens of Arkansas.

Handicapped since childhood by his own impaired sight, he has been for many years the motivating force in the programs of the Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind Rehabilitation Center. He spearheaded the organization of the International Services for the Blind, created for the purpose of financing training scholarships for professionals at the Rehabilitation Center and from other countries. This organization also provides consultative services for establishing rehabilitation services in foreign nations.

He has served as chairman of the Governor's Committee for Employment of the Handicapped and as President of the American Association of Workers for the Blind. He is a recipient of the Humanitarian Award of Lions International.

HUGH B. PATTERSON, JR.

Hugh B. Patterson, Jr. is a distinguished and widely recognized leader in the field of American journalism.

During his tenure as publisher of the Arkansas Gazette, the newspaper has received two Pulitzer Prizes in a single year, the first newspaper in the country to be so honored.

Mr. Patterson exerts his own influence, and that of his newspaper, in support of improvement of Arkansas education at all levels. He is a member of the Board of Visitors of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. He has served as a director of the National Citizens Committee for Better Schools and as a member of the National Committee for the Support of Public Schools.

Mr. Patterson is active in civic and governmental affairs and was a founding member of the Southern Committee on Political Ethics.

He has held numerous positions of leadership in his profession, having served successively as a director, treasurer, president and Board chairman of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Association. He also has served as a member of the Labor Relations Committee of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

JOE E. COVINGTON

Joe E. Covington is an able and dedicated educator in the field of law who holds regional and national stature.

Dr. Covington is a former provost of the University of Arkansas, and served as Acting President of the University in 1951-52 and again in the Spring of 1953. He became Dean of the School of Law at the University of Arkansas in 1954 and four years later accepted the Deanship at the University of Missouri School of Law. He now holds an endowed chair as the Phil Sheridan Gibson Professor of Law at the University of Missouri.

He is a member of the American Bar Foundation, an organization within the American Bar Association whose membership is limited to one quarter of one per cent of the attorneys in the United States.

He has served as Director of Testing for the National Conference of Bar Examiners since 1969. In this position, he administers the Multistate Bar Examination, developed on his initiative, which was given for the first time in 1972 to more than 16,000 applicants for admission to the bars of 33 states.

Dr. Covington received his bachelor's and law degrees from the University of Arkansas and the Master of Law and the Doctor of Juridical Science degrees from the Harvard Law School.

MARY L. GOOD

Dr. Mary L. Good is a highly distinguished scholar and scientist in the fields of chemistry and nuclear energy.

As a professor on the faculty of Louisiana State University at New Orleans, Dr. Good is chairman of the institution's Nuclear Energy Committee and is the first woman to be appointed to the Board of Directors of the Oak Ridge Associated Universities.

Her achievements in teaching, research and administrative activities are numerous and varied. Among other responsibilities, she is a member of the National Science Foundation's Advisory Council on Chemistry. She is a frequent participant in international scientific conferences and symposia.

Dr. Good received her Bachelor's degree from State College of Arkansas, and her master's and doctoral degrees from the University of Arkansas.

FREDERICK LEE LIEBOLT

Dr. Frederick Lee Liebolt is a nationally known orthopedic surgeon and medical educator in New York City.

Author of 20 books on the various aspects of orthopedics, he is responsible for many innovative and pathfinding surgical procedures in his specialty.

He previously has been awarded an honorary degree by the University of Arkansas and he has taught on the medical faculties of Columbia and Cornell Universities and Ithaca College in New York. He served during World War II as head of the Department of Orthopedic Surgery at Cornell University Medical College and currently serves as orthopedic surgeon to the New York Hospital — Cornell Medical Center. He is a member of the American Board of Orthopedic Surgery.

He received his Bachelors degree from the University of Arkansas and his MD degree from the Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis.
